Emergency Measures Extended to April 30th in all Outaouais Schools

Good afternoon,

At a press conference earlier this afternoon, Premier François Legault announced that the emergency measures currently in effect for schools in the Outaouais region will continue through to Friday, April 30th. Given this directive, schools will not reopen until Monday, May 3rd. Schools and centres will continue to maintain their schedules through distance learning.

Please take note that these measures do not apply to Western Quebec schools located in Region 08; namely:

- G. Théberge School
- Golden Valley School
- Noranda School

Sincerely,

George Singfield
